

ERCIM Workshop on Social Media Analysis "Networked Data Analysis for Social Media", 12 noon to 5pm, 18th June, UCD, Dublin

Meeting Minutes:

Session 1: 12.00 - 12.45pm:

Barry Smyth, Community based search with Heystaks www.heystaks.com

Lunch

Session 2: 1.45pm - 3.15pm

Conor Hayes & Marcel Karnstedt, (DERI, NUI Galway): Cross community effects in scientific communities

Laura Slaughter, (NTNU): Health-related patient-produced blogs as a data source for clinical researchers

Cathal Gurrin, (DCU): Personal digital media management

Padraig Cunningham, (UCD): Uncovering anomalous structure in social networks

Eric Bruno, (U Geneva): Multi-view approaches to multimedia information management

Conrad Lee, (U Bielefeld): Uncovering overlapping community structure in large networks

Coffee Break

Session 3: 3.45pm - 5.00pm

Ismael Navas Delgado, (U Malaga): Khaos Research: Social Networking for Life Science

Elena Renda, (CNR Italy): Community-based communications in individual mobile networks

Steve Gregory, (Bristol Uni.): Overlapping community detection in networks

John Breslin, (DERI, NUI Galway): SIOC: Semantically-Interlinked Online Communities

Mike Farrugia & Aaron Quigley, (UCD): Inferring social networks from airline passenger data

General Discussion & Next Steps: 5.00pm - 5.30pm

- We agreed on a name and scope of the working group – Social Network Analysis

- We agreed to meet again in October/November 09 for another working group session
- An objective of the meeting in October/November 09 will be the planning of a collaborative research proposal.